VERNARD (Vern) CLARK MEMORIAL TROPHY:

From the monies collected the past year, from fellow collectors and Coin Dealers, following the passing of Vern Clark, a sum was set aside to be given, in the form of an award, to the person who scores the highest number of points, for his or her display (in any category other than U.S. Coins) on exhibit at the 1970 I.N.A. Convention.

Vern was a well liked Dealer, and student of Numismatics. This Special Award will be a fine tribute to his knowledge and to his dedication to the Coin Hobby.

ELECTION BALLOTS, I.N.A.:

I.N.A. members recently received a ballot for the Election of Officers, for the 1970-1972 term of office. It is imperative that you make the selections of your choice, and to mail the ballot to Martha Ott, INA Secretary, so that yours may be counted.

Rummage around that old desk, shelf, or waste-basket, for your ballot, and, if you have not already done so, mail it to;

I.N.A. Secretary,
102 So. Davis St.
Ottumwa, Iowa. 52501.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE:

Not long, now, until the day when I shall be handing the INA Gavel to your newly elected President. Although some trials and tribulations were encountered, during my term of office, they were not as formidable as they seemed, and as I look back, now, the time has passed, all too quickly.

I have had the pleasure of working with a fine Staff of men and women, who made up the Official Board, of the Iowa Numismatic Association.

In assuming the role of your Past-President, I shall continue to make every effort possible toward making the I.N.A. an organization that we all can be proud of.

William "Bill" Ott, President.

FIVE STATES REPRESENTED:

At the time we go to press, Bill Orne, Bourse Chairman, for the 1970 I.N.A. Convention reports that Dealers from five neighboring States will be on hand, with their wares. Two days of wheeling and dealing are in store for the collectors.

Represented for the first time, in this area, will be the well known firm of R.A.R.C.O.A. of Chicago. This firm is well known to the serious collector, and one of the nation's tops, in rare and unusual coins and currency.

Another well known name on the list of many, is Jess Peters, of Decatur, Ill. Twenty-eight more dealers will be in Cedar Rapids, October 3rd. and 4th. to buy, sell or trade, at the I.N.A. Show.

Mark the dates on your calendar, and remember the place. Site of the show; Roosevelt Hotel, in down-town Cedar Rapids. Exhibits, an Auction, and awards will all be a part of the festivities.

Auction list is enclosed with this Bulletin. This will be a mail auction, as well as a floor auction. If you can't be present, mail bids to; A and A Coins, Iowa City, Iowa. Box 469. prior to the convention date.

DAFFYNITION: Optimist - a man that rushes to the Court House, hoping to find that his Marriage License has expired.

FROM THE COIN BOX:

Club news received this month from, Port City Coin Club, Tri-Cities Coin Club, Keokuk, Fort Madison and Clarion. Also Mt. Pleasant sent along a note. It is still a fact, however, that some are still sending Show or Auction information to Martha. This makes more work for her, and too, it may make the item arrive at my place, (some times it seems to come by Pony Express) a little late for publication. So, Please, send club copy to your Editor.--
 - The trouble with some of today's smart kids is, that they don't smart in the right place. -- Dean Oakes, I.N.A. Vice-Pres. will be the speaker at the Keokuk-Fort Madison Joint Banquet, October 24th. at the Catholic Church, Montrose. -- Port City Club has added the book "So-Called Dollars" to the club library. -- New edition of Bert Marshe's book "Detecting Altered Coins" is off the press, and is available at coin dealers. Read this type of material and help to stamp out phonies. -- How about us Law and Order Citizens getting together and start demanding equal riots? -- Clarion Coin Club has changed their show dates twice, to avoid conflict with other shows and activities. This is co-operation. -- Miriam, please note; Show listed. Last communication too late for edition(ed). -- The United States Constitution gives A MAN THE RIGHT TO FREE SPEECH, providing he isn't afraid of his wife; his neighbors, his Boss; his co-worker; or that it won't hurt his business or his reputation. -- Keep them thar club notes coming in for the next Bulletin issue. - 30 -
